

Can family data be imported directly into the Lead File?

Last Modified on 12/04/2018 2:04 pm EST

No. Our import system can only place family data in your main Jackrabbit database. However, after an import, you can use the Lead File Mass Archive and select the "Imported on" date to quickly mass move that group of families from your main database into your Lead File.
