How long does it take to set up ePayment processing in Jackrabbit?

The set up process with our Payment Partners may take 7-14 business days. As soon as Jackrabbit receives your login credentials from the Payment Partner, we'll test the credit card processing connection. Once the testing is successful, you can immediately begin processing ePayments. ACH testing will need to be done by you after the connection is secure. We will email you the information you need.